

The BUTTERSPRITES Are Everywhere!

NEWS:

- The BUTTERSPRITES have recently been in the Top 10 artist and album searches on Billboard.com (#7 for Week Ending: October 14, 2005).
- "Hot New Artist" on All Music Guide (10-3-11). AMG says, "Buttersprites are as unlikely a group from Seattle as one is liable to find: a bright, happy, and funny female quintet combining Japanese pop with 1980s post-punk. Out of place at home, elsewhere their gleeful mix is catching on, thanks to their outstanding debut disc and colorful live performances."
- Appeared at the 2005 CMJ Music Marathon, 2005 Rockrgl Music Conference, and 2004 Seattle Ladyfest.
- Featured on the Asian-American TV magazine show, StirTV.
- They were featured on KEXP's Audioasis show (Seattle local music show).
- There's a review of their debut self-titled album in the current issue of Bitch Magazine.

Fierce and sassy members hailing from Washington, Hawaii and Japan. Their simple charming sound is by turns sweet and punky, like the soundtrack from some eighties independent film about zombies and kissing.
